Firm Overview

Tuckerman Capital is a private investment firm that acquires profitable private niche manufacturing and specialized service companies with enterprise values ranging from $8 million to $30 million ($2 to $6 million EBITDA). Unlike a traditional buyout fund, Tuckerman can act as the sole provider of capital - both debt and equity - bringing certainty to the acquisition funding process. Tuckerman Capital was founded in 2001 and has invested in fourteen companies in the last decade. The Tuckerman team has completed over 40 acquisitions of niche manufacturing companies with an aggregate enterprise value in excess of $400 million. www.tuckermancapital.com

The Opportunity

Tuckerman is currently accepting applications for undergraduate intern positions in Hanover, New Hampshire. This opportunity is only available to current Dartmouth undergraduate students based in Hanover. The position is flexible and depending on the candidate could be full-time for a term or longer, or part-time/project based.

Position Overview

The Intern(s) will play a key role in supporting many critical activities at Tuckerman. Tuckerman is a very small firm with an entrepreneurial environment where everyone is expected to play multiple roles. Primary Intern responsibilities may include:

Investment Origination and Transactional Support

- Build, maintain/update, analyze business development databases of partner investment firms and financial intermediaries
- Help execute deal sourcing strategy and activities
- Help develop well researched investment theses based on macro and industry trends
- Review and summarize confidential investment memoranda
- Support business due diligence and financial analysis of new investment opportunities

Portfolio Company Support

- Conduct general industry or company specific research and analysis and special projects in support of portfolio companies

Firm Capacity Support

- Fundraising and investor relations support
- Internal process improvement support

Academic and Experience Requirements:

- At least two years (six terms) towards a Dartmouth degree
- Genuine, demonstrated interest in business and investment
- Experience with Excel and PowerPoint (complex financial modeling skills are not a pre-requisite)
- A very basic understanding of accounting and financial reporting will be helpful
- Prior investment, strategy, finance or investment banking, small business or entrepreneurial experience a plus

Important Skills:

- Superior detail orientation and aggressive research abilities
- Clear and efficient written communication – an ability to digest complex concepts, identify the important elements, and communicate clearly in various formats
- Verbal interpersonal skills – strong phone research and interviewing ability
- Quantitative and analytical aptitude
- High level of professionalism – Responsible, proactive, trustworthy and ambitious individual who enjoys taking ownership of projects, working relatively independently without oversight, and being held accountable for results
- Able to thrive in an entrepreneurial environment
- Candidates will be expected to demonstrate an interest and ability to learn and develop new skills quickly and independently

To Apply

Candidates should submit a cover letter (in the body of an email). Please attach your resume and unofficial transcript (include your overall GPA and SAT scores on Resume) to the cover email. Please indicate the time frame that you would be available for an internship (what dates/terms, full-time or part-time). Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.
