

OPAL and Student Assembly Present...

A Week In Community (Psssst... We got Junot Diaz)

Monday

October 14th

Professor Janice
McCabe
Community in Student
Friendships: Tight-knitters, Compartmentalizers, and Samplers

Location: Haldeman 041
Time: 2:00 – 3:30 pm

Tuesday

October 15th

Two-Minute Tales with Community Leaders
Explore the following
questions:
What does “community”
mean to me?
How I found community at Dartmouth

Coffee and Dessert!
Location: Ocom
Commons
Time: 4:00-5:30pm

Wednesday

October 16th

Playing with Bias
Students are invited to explore the science of
bias, and receive
information on Bias
Incident Reporting.

Location: Rocky 003
Time: 4:30 pm to 5:30
pm

Thursday

October 17th

OPAL Mixer

Explore Intersectionality at Dartmouth with coffee,
cookies and Karlos
Santos-Coy

Location:
Student Academic
Support Center
Time: 7:30 pm to 8:30
pm

Friday

October 18th

An Afternoon with...

Junot Diaz

Author of *The Brief and Wondrous Life of Oscar
Wao*, *This is How You Lose
Her*, and Drown, among other works.

Community activist,
writer, professor,
novelist, winner of the
Pulitzer and MacArthur
Fellow 2012.

The first 50 community members to arrive at this presentation receive his newest book for the post-event book signing.

Location: Moore Hall,
Filene Auditorium.
Time: 5 pm