

TIE A YELLOW RIBBON

Estranged from her family due to a childhood indiscretion with her white brother, a young Korean adoptee woman seeks to regain a sense of home by exploring ties with the Asian Americans she meets in her new apartment building, until suddenly, her brother shows up at the door, stirring up long lost feelings that she has tried to bury.

Wednesday March 5 at 6pm at Haldeman 028
Pizza and salad will be served

Sponsored by COSO and the Pan-Asian Wellness Initiative