

THE DARTMOUTH SUSTAINABILITY PROJECT

2015 Earth Week Schedule

Thursday, April 16th

Sustainability Solutions Café: The Nile Project
12:30-1:30 pm, Paganucci Lounge, '53 Commons

Artists and performers from the eleven countries that border the Nile River will connect the preservation of the Nile River watershed to the Connecticut River watershed in a broader discussion of resource conservation and sustainability.

Monday, April 20th

Daily Bulletins & Earth Week Display in Berry Library

Get into the Earth Week spirit each morning with daily email bulletins! On April 20th-24th we'll share event announcements, sustainability tips, and more! Additionally, stop by Berry Hallway all week to participate in an engaging exhibit on Dartmouth's sustainability efforts and learn more about students, faculty, and staff who are working towards a greener future!

EcoReps Campaign: Give A Fork!

The Class of 2018 EcoReps will be tabling throughout the week in support of their efforts to increase sustainable food options at Dartmouth and to build community around food!

Camelback Water bottle Sale
Monday and Tuesday, Collis Café

Use your DBA to buy a reusable water bottle for Earth Week! Get there early to grab yours!

5th Annual Sustainability & Social Justice Dinner

6:00 pm, Grand Ballroom, Hanover Inn

Join us for a facilitated dinner discussion on the intersections of sustainability, inclusivity, community, justice, and stewardship. Attendees will walk away inspired, connected to new faces, and with concrete action steps for themselves and for Dartmouth! RSVP Required - All welcome but space is limited!

Tuesday, April 21st

The George Link Jr. Environmental Awareness Lecture: “Sustainable Revolutions: The Quest for Real Food and Wine in the 21st Century”

7:00 pm, 105 Dartmouth Hall

Featuring Deirdre Heekin, a Vermont farmer, restaurateur, grape grower, and wine maker. Deirdre will read passages from her new book, An Unlikely Vineyard: The Education of a Farmer and Her Quest for Terroir.

Wednesday, April 22nd (Earth Day)

Film Showing of *Wrenched

7:00-9:00 pm, Pavilion at the Vermont Institute of Natural Science
(VINS) Nature Center in Quechee, VT

Visit the Vermont Institute of Natural Science for a screening of Wrenched, a film about how Edward Abbey’s passionate spirit and influential novels helped guide the environmental movement of the 1970s and '80s. Words from Terry Osborne and Brooke Williams from the Environmental Studies Program at Dartmouth. Open and free to the public (suggested donation: $10).

DDS Food Waste Display

5:30-8:30 pm, '53 Commons

Eat at '53 Commons during dinner to learn more about Dartmouth’s daily amount of food waste. Finish the food on your plate or add it to our bins to see the amount of waste that’s collected behind the scenes.

Friday, April 24th

Farm Fresh Friday

3:00-6:00 pm, Beta Lawn, Webster Ave

Wrap up Earth Week celebrations with a sustainable party featuring live music, delicious local and sustainable samples from Upper Valley vendors, dancing, and games!

