

Big Problem, Bold Solutions: Leading Us Out of the Climate Crisis

Sustainability Solutions Café theme in 2015-2016

Who is Responsible for Climate Change? Perspectives from Science, Ethics, Law, and Policy

Friday, October 16, 2015 4:30 - 6:30 pm

Filene Auditorium, Moore Hall, Dartmouth College

Responsibility for climate change lies at the heart of debate over actions to address it. This event will explore the conceptual territory of climate responsibility, and the scientific, legal, ethical, and policy bases for assigning responsibility to companies at the base of the carbon supply chain.

Presenter:

Peter Frumhoff, Director of Science and Policy, Union of Concerned Scientists, will present on climate responsibilities of fossil fuel companies and other major industrial carbon producers. Panel discussion and Q&A session will follow.

Panelists:

Aine Donovan, Executive Director, Ethics Institute; Adjunct Associate Professor, Tuck School of Business and Geisel School of Medicine, Dartmouth

Gus Speth, Senior Fellow, Vermont Law School; former Dean, Yale University School of Forestry and the Environment; former Administrator, UN Development Program; founder, World Resources Institute and the Natural Resources Defense Council

Richard Howarth, Professor and Chair of Environmental Studies Program, Dartmouth, and Editor in Chief of Ecological Economics

For more information about Sustainability Solutions Café events,
please visit:

Sponsored by the Porter Fund for the Sustainability Minor, the Environmental Studies Program, the Center for Business & Society at the Tuck School of Business, and the Office of Sustainability at Dartmouth

Questions? Contact: Alexander.J.Sitek@dartmouth.edu