

2016 Still I Rise Submission Form

The “Still I Rise” event in April represents a space for you to creatively express yourself and share your experiences with domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. We are accepting submissions of original pieces or performances, including:

- Narrative/prose/written pieces up to two pages in length (eight minutes read aloud)
- Poetry (preferably more than five minutes read aloud)
- Artwork (photography, drawing, painting, sculpture, projection, etc.)
- Original songs/musical performances
- Dance/choreography
- Film/digital media

Please email submissions to WISE.at.Dartmouth@dartmouth.edu or post them to Hinmin Box 1225. Please answer the following questions and include this page with your submission so we can understand how you would like your submission to be included:

1. Would you like help starting or revising your piece? Yes No
2. Would you like to read/perform your own submission? Yes No
If you would rather have someone else read/perform, WISE@D has volunteers to do so. If you already have someone in mind that you would prefer, please put their email below:

3. Are you interested in reading someone else’s piece? Yes No
4. Please sign below, indicating that you give your permission for your work to be included in the ways you have specified, or indicate that you would prefer to have your name withheld by writing “anonymous.”
