

You are invited to join senior female members of the Bain Capital team for informal conversation.

When:

Thursday, October 13th
6:00pm - 7:00pm

Where:

Dartmouth College
Classroom, Rocky 003

Bain Capital, a global multi-asset alternative investment firm managing over $75B in assets, is excited to meet talented Dartmouth women interested in careers in investment.

Please join women from our Private Equity and Credit teams, who will share their experiences and provide an insider's perspective on the industry and its opportunities.

As this is a casual information session, no prior knowledge of finance is needed. After an introductory presentation, our team will be available to talk with you and answer additional questions regarding available opportunities for summer positions for juniors.

Space is limited. Please submit your RSVP to Roshni.Chandwani.18@dartmouth.edu by 11:59pm EST on Monday, October 10th.
