In what ways do you hope to learn and grow by living in the Kelsey Community?

What do you plan to contribute to the wider Edge community as a resident student leader?

Who recommended the Kelsey Community to you?

Would you be willing to share a bedroom?

If so, do you have a preference for your roommate?

Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?

Covenant

Acceptance into the Kelsey Community at Edgerton House requires applicants to agree to the following covenant with Episcopal Campus Ministry and the other student residents.

I promise to have an open mind, and seek to learn new things about faith, through:

- ◆ Attending an Episcopal worship service no less than five times per term (either at Edgerton House or at St Thomas Episcopal Church).
- ◆ Participating in and help prepare Wednesday night supper at least five times per term
- ◆ Attending Theology on Tap at least twice a term.
- ◆ Taking care of the communal spaces and do chores on a weekly basis: maintain the Kelsey Community as a peaceful, respectful and harmonious residential community by being thoughtful and striving to uphold open communication around issues of shared space, food, sleeping hours, guests and other challenges as they arise.
- ◆ Weekly group reflection on the experience of living in community with the other Kelsey Community residents and Assistant Chaplain.

I further promise that I will not:

- ◆ Discriminate against others on the basis of sexual orientation, gender, race, class, nationality or religious belief,
- ◆ Smoke or bring or use illegal drugs on the premises of Edgerton House.
- ◆ Drink alcohol as a minor, or enable other minors to do so at Edgerton House.

By signing below I agree to do all in my power to keep these promises as a matter of top priority during my residency at Edgerton House. I understand that failure to keep my promises in this Covenant will render me ineligible to continue to live at the Edgerton House. I also agree to sign a lease with St. Thomas Church at the start of the term, outlining my legal and financial responsibilities as a resident in the Kelsey Community.
