

JOIN US

for a panel discussion on:

ECONOMIC ENGAGEMENT in LATIN AMERICA

MONDAY, MAY 14

8 PM

ROCKY 002

Peter DeShazo

Dartmouth Professor of Latin American, Latino and Caribbean Studies

Diplomatic Assignments with U.S. Foreign Service

Directed Americas Program for Leading Think Tank in D.C.

Research in Latin American history, security issues, and international affairs

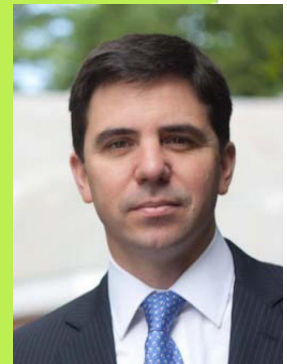

Diego Comin

Dartmouth Professor of Economics

Advisor of Developmental Strategies for PM of Malaysia

Developed Macroeconomics Models for European Central Bank and European Commission

Consultant for World Bank, IMF, N.Y. Federal Reserve Bank, and Japanese Gov't

Santiago Gallino

Associate Professor of Business Administration at the Tuck School of Business

Taught at the IAE Business School in Argentina

Consulted with retailing, food manufacturing, energy, and entertainment firms throughout Latin America.

Sponsored by the Dartmouth Emerging Markets Group

