

16th Annual MLK Health Equity Celebration

Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth – January 2022
 Events Will be Held In-Person in Oopik Auditorium and Over Zoom

Race-Based Medicine: Acknowledging Medicine's Trajectory and Our Role in Shaping Its Course

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14th

5:15-6:45PM

TAKEOVER documentary film viewing and discussion*

Facilitated by Linda Villarosa, Associate Professor, Craig Newmark Graduate School of Journalism, City University of New York

SATURDAY, JANUARY 15th

9:00AM

Tackling Social Determinants of Health as a Means of Improving Health Outcomes in Low-Income and Minority Populations*

Iyabo Obasanjo, PhD, DVM, Faculty Affiliate, Institute of Integrative Conservation and Co-Director, Center for African Development, Global Research Institute, William and Mary

10:00AM

Run and Not Be Weary: A Journey of Courage, Tenacity, Faith, and a Little Science*

Carol McGruder, Founding Member and Co-Chair, African American Tobacco Control Leadership Council

11:00AM

Reclaiming Indigenous Health: Embracing Traditional Values, Culture, and History in Cancer Efforts*

Wyatt Pickner, MPH - Hunkpati Dakota, Research Manager, American Indian Cancer Foundation

12-1PM

Break

12:15PM

Performance by the Dermatones

12:30PM

Abenaki Food Pantry Fundraiser

Join us for a walk around Occom Pond in support of the Abenaki food pantry in Swanton, VT. We will leave from in front of the Remsen Vail buildings. More details here.

1:15PM

Ending the Legacy of Racism in Medicine*

Dorothy Roberts, JD, 14th Penn Integrates Knowledge Professor, University of Pennsylvania

2:15PM

The Intersection of Racism and Race-based Medical Decision Making in Medical Education*

Bonzo Reddick, MD, MPH, Chair, Department of Community Medicine, Mercer University School of Medicine

3:15PM

Performance by Aseemkala

3:30-4:30PM

A Practical Approach to Considering Race in Primary Care Delivery*

Matthew Mackwood, MD, MPH, Family Physician and Assistant Professor, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO JOIN VIA ZOOM, VISIT: <https://dartgo.org/geisel-mlk>

Sponsored by the Dartmouth College Office for Institutional Diversity and Equity, The Dartmouth Institute, Geisel Student Government, The Center for Global Health Equity, The Norris Cotton Cancer Center, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center Department of Medicine, and the Geisel Office for Diversity, Inclusion and Community Engagement.

 Learning Outcome:

At the conclusion of this learning activity, (at least 75% of) participants will be able to discuss race-based medicine through the presentation of one example of racism in medicine, in order to provide a background for the necessary improvement of best practice to better address the overall problem of discrimination in healthcare.

 Accreditation:

Dartmouth-Hitchcock is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Dartmouth-Hitchcock designates this live activity for a maximum of 7.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Dartmouth-Hitchcock Nursing Continuing Education Council is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. This educational activity carries 7.5 contact hours.