

Field Crews

Protecting and maintaining the AT trails and boundary are important to ensuring both that the land is being used as intended and the safety of visitors.

Every year thousands of volunteers get their boots muddy and assist the ATC's field staff with this important work.

Volunteer Schedule:
(come when you can)

We'll be meeting every Saturday this summer starting August 5th, 2017 at the Dartmouth Outing Club in Robinson Hall: 6N Main St, Hanover, NH.

Things to bring:

work boots
rain gear
lunch & water

We'll bring everything else!

If you're ready to jump in and join us in protecting our wildlands, please contact:

Molly Redfield
(mredfield@appalachiantrail.org)

Scott Simon
(ssimon@appalachiantrail.org)

We look forward to seeing you out there!

monument marking the exterior AT land boundary in West Virginia