

Fidelity Investments would like to invite you to participate in our upcoming Two Minute Drill event! Below is some information about the session and how to prepare.

To reserve a spot to pitch, please RSVP to Ashley Stanojev at: Ashley.Stanojev@fmr.com by Thursday, January 9th, 2014.

Date: Monday, January 13th, 2014
Time: 5:00 pm
Location: Room Kemeny 006

What is the Two Minute Drill?

The Two Minute Drill is an educational event hosted by Fidelity Investments, where you will deliver a brief stock pitch to an audience of your peers and Fidelity Investment Professionals, who will provide immediate feedback on how to strengthen your argument.

As a participant, you will prepare a stock pitch in advance, selecting a company of your choice. Pitches should be researched and delivered individually (not in teams) in strictly two minutes. No write-up is required. The goal of your stock pitch is to communicate a compelling yet concise argument for why this stock is a good “buy” or “sell”.

How to Prepare:

- Select a company that interests you – know the ticker.
- Research the company thoroughly and start formulating your investment opinion.
- Begin planning your argument and organizing the structure of your pitch.
- Be confident, compelling, and concise in your communication.
- Show creativity in your research and independent thinking.
- Have fun!

> CLICK HERE to learn more about how to prepare an impactful pitch and to view two samples.

We look forward to seeing you there!

