

ENRIQUE MARTÍNEZ CELAYA

Five Projects Since Schneebett

Trained as an artist and physicist,

ENRIQUE MARTÍNEZ CELAYA

works in painting, sculpture, photography and writing.
This presentation will discuss his work and practice through his last five major projects.

The New York Times says, "The questions [Enrique Martínez Celaya] explores in painting (and in his related writings) belong to religion and philosophy: the meaning of life and death, the purpose of consciousness, and what it means to be good or do good."

 MONTGOMERY
FELLOWS PROGRAM
AT DARTMOUTH COLLEGE

Tuesday, July 15, 2014

4:30 p.m.

Hood Auditorium

Presented in conjunction with his exhibit at the Hood Museum of Art, Burning as If a Lamp

