

Big Green for 100%: Leadership for a Clean Energy Future

Wednesday, October 25th @ 6PM in Rocky 2

With federal inaction on climate and recent disasters, it's more important than ever to shift toward 100% renewable energy as quickly as possible. Hanover is the first town in New Hampshire to commit to 100% clean energy. What more can we do in New England? How can Dartmouth lead on climate action and renewable technology?

Panelists:

Rosalie Kerr, Sustainability Director at Dartmouth College

Allyson Samuell, Sierra Club Upper Valley Sierra Ready for 100

Meghan Hassett '15, Environment Massachusetts

Sustainable Hanover Committee

Cosponsors:

Dartmouth Democrats, Dartmouth Office of Sustainability, Environment

New Hampshire, Epsilon Kappa Theta
